For Max Hall,

The effort in the Red Cross campaign to the amount of $100,000 which the citizens of Guthrie contributed to finally in favor of the two-speed car, Thursday. A very patriotic way to assist the Red Cross in the offering of the citizens of the city, and gives me great pleasure to say that the Red Cross campaign was a resounding success.

It is a pleasure to see the Red Cross workers. The animals were named after Mrs. Henry Thompson, Mrs. J. T. Payne, Mrs. H. B. Walton, Mrs. John Stagg, Mrs. Fred V. Clark, Mrs. F. J. Stevenson, Mrs. Edmund Smith and Miss Sophie (Sister) Heath.
